BOULEVARD OPENED

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES MARK
COMPLETION OF DEVIL'S
GATE DAM

Ray Borthick was one of the few Glendale citizens who went over to the Devil's Gate dam yesterday to witness the temporary opening of the highway that crosses over on it. All of the Supervisors, County Engineer Reagan, one or two other county officials and Pasadena city officers were present, he says. The ceremonies were opened at 11 o'clock and lasted until 12:30. Brief talks were made by Mr. Reagan, the supervisors, Mr. Bent, one of the contractors, Mr. Hamilton, ex-supervisor and others. It was explained that the roadway which crosses over the top of the dam is a part of the Foot-hill Boulevard, connecting with it on the east at Lincoln avenue, in Pasadena, and on the west with the highway leading through the Flintridge section, till it joins the concrete pavement extending west through La Canada, La Crescenta and Sunland. When the gap at Big Tujunga wash is bridged over with the $100,000 concrete structure already authorized and the road is paved west of Sunland past El Retiro and just north of San Fernando to connect with the San Fernando Road this side of Newhall tunnel, a great highway project will have been completed.

The opening of the highway over the dam yesterday was only temporary, as it was closed after the ceremonies. Hand rails are to be constructed on both sides, the connections with the main boulevard paved and a great deal of cleaning up done.

Death of Mrs. Ainsworth

Mrs. Caroline Ainsworth died this morning at 4:30, at the home, 403 North Louise. Funeral services will be held Saturday at the Little Church of the Flowers. It will be a Christian Science service. Mrs. Ainsworth was born in Vermont, July 2, 1831, hence was in her ninety-third year. She had lived in California twenty-five years and twelve of these were spent in Glendale. Her husband died more than forty years ago and since then she had lived with her children. She leaves two daughters, Miss Elizabeth Ainsworth, and Mrs. Mary J. Brooks, with whom she made her home, and two sons in Minneapolis, Minn.

Visiting at Beach

Miss Clara Midcalf, vice principal of the Intermediate School who attended the N. E. A. convention at Salt Lake City as the delegate of the Glendale City Teachers' Club, within the past week has rejoined her sister, Alice Midcalf and brother, Holman, at Santa Monica, where they have been spending the summer. After the convention, Miss Midcalf toured Yellowstone Park and visited in San Francisco. She and her sister expect to return to Glendale in about two weeks.

House Damaged By Fire

The fire department was called to 1711 Gardena avenue yesterday about noon. No one was at home, a neighbor having sent in the alarm. A bedroom in which the fire started, was gutted, and the bed was entirely consumed. Quick work by the firemen subdued the flames so that the rest of the house was saved.

McLAREN WINS

SWINDLER CONVICTED ON EVIDENCE
SECURED BY DETECTIVE OF THIS CITY

Malcolm McLaren, of North Jackson street, who is connected with the District Attorney's office, and who has been collecting evidence against a gang of swindlers who have been operating in Los Angeles, is well pleased over the fact that one of the men, Fred Mayne, was convicted on the evidence he secured and has been sentenced this week to fifteen years in the penitentiary for swindling a man by the name of Evans out of $3000. He was on the verge of getting $10,000 more from a man by the name of Weiss, when he was arrested in Santa Barbara by Mr. McLaren and his associates. In October Mr. McLaren expects to go to New York to bring back "Big Hutch," another member of the group.

Mr. McLaren's daughter, Mrs. Fred Flack, has been quite ill and threatened with appendicitis, but is better, though the doctor has ordered her to remain in bed for several days to come.

CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

FUND TO ERECT BUILDINGS ALL
RAISED; SESSIONS TO START SOON

Rev. C. A. Cole, pastor of Central Christian Church, and his congregation, are rejoicing over the recent announcement that the fund of $400,000 the churches of Southern California started out last February to raise, to match a contribution of the same amount by Charles C. Chapman of Fullerton to found a Christian college or school in Los Angeles, has been pledged and $25,000 over, with more to come in. One reason for this feeling is that Rev. Cole gave considerable time, by consent of the church, to securing pledges, visiting Santa Barbara, San Luis Obispo, San Diego and other cities and helping to raise over $60,000. The congregation is pleased because the members thereof pledged over $4000 of this amount. The buildings, which are to be located on a five-acre lot already secured diagonally across Vermont avenue from the State University, will be started soon and the school term will open early in September in the Wilshire Christian Church building. The name chosen is "The School of Christianity" and the fund available is nearly $900,000.

P. E. Fare Increase

The increase in P. E. fares and freight rates granted yesterday by the State Railroad Commission and to go into effect before September 1, is not very popular with the road's patrons. Glendale's fare increase is not as large as that of some other cities and the freight rates do not bother much, since nearly all transport of that kind to Glendale is by trucks. The beach towns are making the most strenuous protest, however. Like all other price advances it will not be so hard when we get used to it. Glendale's rate will be 17 cents one way and 30 cents round trip from Glendale station. Some points south of that have a lower rate. The commutation book rate figures 7½ cents a trip.

Knights of Pythias

The regular meeting of Knights of Pythias was held Wednesday evening in the lodge hall at 111 East Broadway, with Grand Knight Doll in the chair. The evening was given to the regular work of the order and to the consideration of the large number of candidates for membership. The lodge is growing steadily in numbers and a group of about twenty will be taken to Los Angeles August 31 for initiation there. It had been expected that plans for the annual picnic of the lodge would be discussed, but the regular work prevented. The next regular meeting will take place the first Wednesday in September, when the annual election will take place.

New House Construction

W. F. Tower has the material on the ground at 212 South Central avenue to put up two, possibly three houses for rental purposes of a construction new in Glendale, but which has been used successfully in Los Angeles. It consists of plaster board both for inside and outside walls. Inside, paper will be put on over the plaster board, but outside the joints will be batted and the whole surface painted. This is said to make very habitable residences and the cost is considerably less than for ordinary construction.

A Fine Building

The Broadway school building, which is very near completion, is one of the finest specimens of architecture of this class in Los Angeles County. The large columns effectively set off the main entrance and the roof design is simple and effective. It is hoped this will be a model for all future grammar school buildings that may be erected in Glendale.

Glendale People Famous

J. B. Winters and wife, who recently drove through from Brockton, Mass., to Glendale in their auto with only $1.69 of expense for repairs, then settled down in the home they had bought at 208 North Jackson, are becoming quite famous. The account of their remarkable trip, as reported in The Evening News, is being used in display advertisements of the make of car they drove, all over the country.

CHICAGOANS

MR. AND MRS. COYKENDALL OF WINDY CITY BUY GLEN-DALE HOME

I. M. Coykendall and wife came out to Los Angeles last May, and after looking at residence property in Pasadena, Alhambra, Culver City and some of the beach cities, decided to try Glendale. After looking at a number of properties they were taken to the home of Dr. J. P. Bray at 250 North Verdugo Road, and Mrs. Bray proved to be an old friend of Mr. Coykendall, whom he had known as a boy and man in Dubuque, Iowa. As the Brays fully intended going back to Dubuque to live, and Mr. and Mrs. Coykendall liked the place they owned, a bargain was soon struck, and the new purchasers moved in with the former owners. After thinking the matter over the Brays decided that Glendale was the best place to live after all, so after some looking around they bought F. W. Pigg's new residence at 526 North Jackson, as a home, and the property at 615 Howard for an investment. They will move into the new home today.

Mr. Coykendall was in business in Chicago for a number of years, but recently sold and decided to rest for a while before going at it again. He still has some hankering for the big city by the lake, but his wife says she wants to live and die in Glendale. The new home consists of a large two-story residence on a deep lot with a frontage of 120 feet. There is considerable fruit on the grounds.

Many Lot Sales

As an evidence of the great amount of property changing ownership these days one of our banks reported seventeen escrows taken in one day, and that the average is thirty-five a week. Vacant lots are moving freely and prices are advancing steadily. Some buyers are snapping up bargains in such for resale and many others buy simply to build on for themselves, since they cannot rent.

Enroute Home

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Grote of 444 West Garfield avenue, and their daughter, Thelma, who left here on Decoration Day for a transcontinental auto trip to Philadelphia, have written friends here that they have enjoyed a wonderful summer in the East. They are now enroute for the Pacific Coast and have arrived as far as Nebraska.

Guests at W. S. Kirk's

S. R. Nussbaum and wife of Denison, Texas, who are spending a month in California with headquarters at Long Beach, were guests of W. S. Kirk and family of 1129 East Colorado, the first of the week. Mr. Nussbaum is in the railway mail service. He and his wife like Glendale very much and expect to come out here to live before winter arrives. Mr. and Mrs. A. Sydney Smith, also of Denison, who are visiting relatives in Alhambra, were guests of the Kirks one day last week.

Enjoying Eastern Trip

The daughters of Mrs. F. L. Church of 225 North Orange, report that their mother, who went East a short time ago, is now in Massachusetts and will soon go to New Jersey. She is having an interesting trip, but says if she gets back to California she will never leave it again. She has been visiting relatives and one of the things she has been doing has been to help in the dismantling of a house, which had been in the family since 1830.

Purrier Improves Slowly

Judge Harry M. Miller called at the Burbank Hospital Tuesday evening to see H. E. Purrier, who was shot through the lungs by an auto bandit on the morning of July 30. He is still very weak and has some fever, but is considered out of danger, though no one but his immediate family are allowed to talk with him. He knows so many people and wants to talk to all who come to the hospital, Judge Miller says, and it requires all the nurses' authority to keep him from over-exerting himself.

C. H. Bott and wife of the Glendale Book Store, who are enjoying a two weeks' outing at Big Bear, are expected home next Monday.

WORLD TOUR

FERRIS MURDY RE-ENLISTS IN NAVY TO MAKE CRUISE WITH PACIFIC FLEET

Ferris Murdy, one of the new comers in our city who has been living at 309 E. Elk avenue and who was in the naval service during the war, has re-enlisted at his old rank of pharmacist's mate and will leave for San Francisco on the 27th to join his ship. He is an expert, experienced Spanish and English stenographer and during the war was kept in the offices at Washington doing clerical work. He is anxious to see the world and now that the Atlantic and Pacific fleets are going on cruises he thinks his great opportunity has come. He expects to journey from San Francisco to Honolulu where possibly a month's stop will be made, and from there go to the Philippines, Chinese, Japanese and other oriental ports, returning to this side of the Pacific and passing through the Panama Canal to the Atlantic and on to Cuba where the two fleets will meet for review and target practice.

At that time he hopes to get a transfer to the Atlantic fleet which will enable him to see European waters and so make the tour of the globe.

He is a lucky and thrifty lad and declares on the pay allowed men of his rank he will be able to save $100 a month and so will have a nice little nest-egg when the cruise is finished. He has had fine offers of commercial positions but thinks now, while he is unattached, is his time to travel when Uncle Sam is to pay the bills.

Hard To Find Homes

The reluctance of many property owners to rent to families with children is working a hardship in some cases. One such noted recently was that of Thomas Goss and wife, who have five children, three of them under ten. They have been living in an old house on Vine street west of Pacific avenue for five years. Just recently that place was sold to people living in Santa Barbara and possession demanded. Mrs. Goss has been scouring the city and suburbs of late trying to find a place for the family to move into, but with no success as yet.

Funeral of Chas. Perkins

Funeral services over the remains of Charles Perkins of 215 West Elk avenue, who passed away Monday at 12:10, were conducted by officers of the Glendale Elks' Lodge, of which he was a member. The death of Charles Perkins was a great shock to all his friends, as he had not been critically ill until within a few days of his demise. He was a gentleman of the old school, who made friends wherever he went, and he will be missed in lodge and social circles. For many years he was a member of the leading firm of wholesale druggists in Portland, Me. The services were held at the Little Church of the Flowers.

P. S. McNutt Improving

Miss Etta Supplee, of 929 Sierra avenue, sister of Mrs. P. S. McNutt, reports that Mr. McNutt has so far improved in health, that he was able to take an auto ride around the city Tuesday night with his wife and a niece who came to Southern California from Pennsylvania about six weeks ago, and who is now following her profession as a trained nurse at San Diego. She came up for a brief visit and returned to San Diego Wednesday.

MERRIHEW-TRAFTON

TWO GLENDALEANS SLIP AWAY
FOR QUIET WEDDING AT SANTA BARBARA

Glendale has acquired a new name on its roster of citizenship in the person of Mrs. Oliver Merrihew, and thereby hangs a romance. Not very long ago she was known to her friends as Mrs. Alberta Trafton, but she and Mr. Merrihew, who is also a resident of Glendale, slipped away and were quietly married on the 31st of July at Santa Barbara and then took a wedding trip to San Francisco and other points in the North. A few days ago they returned to Glendale and are residing at 219 West California avenue, where they will be glad to receive the congratulations of their friends.

Constantinople Streets

Processions of all kinds are to be found in the streets of Stamboul, and with no traffic regulations it is difficult to make much headway. In "The Daily Pageant of Stamboul" in the Travel Magazine, Miss Lucy Garnett finds herself in mixed society. "In company with a large drove of turkeys, we take our way along the broad straight street, lined on either hand with shops. Presently the turkeys get into difficulties with a file of camels bearing on their Atlas-like shoulders piles of bedding and curiously decorated chests and coffers. These bales and chests constitute the wedding trousseau and 'plenshing' of a Turkish bride. The turkeys are soon remarchaled to be dispersed many times before they are finally landed safely near the great mosque where they are to be sold in celebration of a Moslem festival."

Man's Creation

The religious customs of the Assyrian Summerians 5000 or more years ago, is given in the 4th volume of translations of tablets in the British University museum by Dr. Stephen Langdon, who was for three years curator of the Babylon section of the university. The Summerian tablets tell of the creation of men from clay by a woman deity. This goddess protects her creations from the flood by saving Ziusgiddu (Noah), and the latter lands in Paradise and eats of forbidden fruit of his own accord. There is no Eve in this theory whatever. The Summerians believed that ten patriarchs ruled some 300,000 years before the flood, that it was about 35,000 years thereafter before Cyrus came down and conquered the kingdom. The historical tablets at the university museum are the most elaborate in existence. No other records purport to give such a record of human existence.

Temperature in North

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—(By United Press).—Weather men seem to be about the only persons not disturbed by the heat wave which has boiled out the interior California valleys and mountain sections away from the coast during the last week.

"It's just the usual summer heat of the interior sections," was the way the district weather bureau here looked at weather conditions when questioned.

"Particularly in the Sacramento and San Joaquin Valleys the mountains hem in the flat low lands on all sides and permit the sun to pour down as it sees fit," he went on. "It isn't unusual."

New temperature records have been set in several interior districts during the last week. Marysville hung up a new mark on Monday when the thermometer went up to 114. Not to be outdone, Oroville made the same mark. On the same day Red Bluff showed 108, Fresno 110 and Sacramento 104.

Points which have greater fame for heat, were lagging behind. Phoenix only registered 104, Yuma, considered an annex to the Pittsburg blast furnaces, registered the same.

Female Help Scarce

For several years it has been much more difficult to secure female household help than it was to get male workers for outside jobs, since so many women and girls work in canneries and stores. It has been all the more difficult of late and now some men are volunteering to do women's work in Glendale. An ad in Tuesday's Evening News brought this kind of help to a hard-pressed housewife when illness in the family made inside help absolutely necessary. Maybe others could have like success in procuring this kind of help.

Millionaire Crop Grows

There are today 30,000 millionaires in the United States, an increase of 4000 in three years, the internal revenue department announces after analysis of the 1919 income tax returns. Sixteen thousand had incomes ranging from $50,000 to $750,000, and 162 had over a million income.

It is disclosed that approximately 4,000,000 heads of families filed income tax returns, half of which represented families whose annual income was $2000 or less.

It should not be overlooked, in fairness to the 30,000 who belong to the millionaire class, that owing to the 50 per cent purchasing power of the dollar many of them may be only half millionaires at that. There is always something to take the joy out of life.

The profiteer who professes to be converted from his evil ways should be taken on probation.

Some get the idea that the fellow who bellows his radical ideas on the street corner is the voice of the people.

There was a time when a chicken thief was considered contemptible, but now it's the fellow who steals your flivver.

Church and Family

Once was a time when father, mother, big sister, brother and little brother set forth faithfully every Sunday morning to church. There they entered one by one, walked down the aisle two by two—save for little brother, who proudly led the way—and seated themselves in the family pew, that held just five. There they sang, with father sometimes emphasizing his individual right to alter tune or key; they listened reverently to the minister's prayer, and attentively to the sermon that was to furnish the principal topic of conversation at the dinner. And after the service, with the spell of its gravity lifted, they chatted vivaciously and vicariously.

Today if one would see such a family group, one must go to the old prints. They are not often found in real life.

The more's the pity. For in the lost art of family church attendance there has been sacrificed one of the strongest ties that in former years kept burning the sacred heartfires of co-operation and understanding and good fellowship.

Is your community a center of family church attendance? Then yours is a blessed community. Is yours a home of family church attendance, where the members attend worship each Sunday together, not as a duty, but as a privilege? Then your family is a happy family.

Courthouse Safe Robbed

The mysterious robbery of the antiquated safe in the Central Police Station at the court house in Los Angeles Tuesday, is exciting considerable comment, most of it unfavorable, as the authorities are severely blamed for keeping so much money in a safe of such flimsy construction that most anyone could have opened it. It stood in Police Judge Chesbro's office. The amount stolen was $24,000.

Happiness in Gladness

"Be glad! When you have said all there is to say about life's sorrow, disappointment and pain, about the selfishness and wrong that sweep over the earth like shadows, about the shortness of its days and the certainty of its nights, it still remains blessedly true that the universe is thrilling with the song of gladness," says a helpful writer.

"Be glad for the beauty of the springtime, the blue of the skies, the music of the birds and the glory of the sunsets. Listen to the laughter of the little children, answer to the handclasp of friendship, grow warm in the love of countless happy homes and be sure that somewhere over and above all is a great Love that makes all these things possible."

The secret of happiness lies in your own attitude toward life.—Orison Swett Marden in Chicago Daily News.

Less Beet Sugar

Despite the enormous price the consumer is paying for sugar, despite the exorbitant profits flowing into the pockets of the sugar manufacturers and refiners, the acreage of sugar beets and the quantity of beet sugar produced in the United States show a persistent decline. The Far West alone could produce every pound of sugar consumed in the United States. Why isn't it done? Why doesn't the farmer produce the sugar and make money?

The margin of profit is there. In Boise, Idaho, recently, the Federal grand jury indicted several officials of the Utah-Idaho Sugar Company, a concern connected with the Mormon hierarchy, on charges of violating the Lever act by selling sugar costing 9 1/2 cents to manufacture for 24 cents a pound. Of course the farmer's share of the loot is far less than 9 1/2 cents.

But the farmer is not growing sugar beets to enable sugar companies to make a profit of 15 cents a pound. If that profit had gone to him, he would be able to pay labor $10 a day, with the result that this fall we would have all the sugar we need, for the production of beet-sugar has become purely a labor problem. Thinning, weeding, topping and cultivating sugar beets is hard, back-straining work. So long as easier farm work can be had for equal or higher pay, labor will keep away from the beet-sugar fields. The only way to get it there is by offering extraordinarily high wages. We are now paying sugar prices so high that the farmer could well afford to pay $10 a day if he were receiving a fair share of the money the public pays for sugar. Unfortunately, he is not getting his fair share; the sugar manufacturers keep nearly all of it, with the result that our sugar beet acreage is dwindling and sugar has to be rationed.

The time is rapidly approaching when disagreeable, unpleasant work will command the highest instead of the lowest possible rates of pay.—August Sunset.

When work becomes more popular people will become more prosperous.

Great Britain hates Bolshevism so much that she is willing to let Poland fight it.

The Gold Star Homes

An official of the American Legion asks ex-service men not to forget the parents and relatives of America's heroes in the homes of the gold stars.

The heroes of the war cannot be recalled. Their places in the home and family will never be filled. But the friends—the ex-service men—can make the burdens lighter, clear away shadows and comfort and aid fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters or wives of the departed.

It is, after all, the little things in life that are appreciated. Material things can be acquired through individual effort, but we cannot accept the friendship of others unless it is voluntarily extended. It is our solemn duty to remember the men who died for America and America's cause. Yes, the soldiers will remember those who live in the gold star homes. Others as well ought to extend that spirit of human recognition.

The new passenger rates are beginning to be felt. Want ad. in Detroit newspaper: "Going to Florida. Will share freight car with another going there."

PASSING OF CANTU

CALEXICO, Aug. 19.—Another of the most picturesque figures in recent Mexican history has faded out today with the passing of Governor Cantu, whose resignation in favor of General Luis Salazar, became effective last night.

Governor Cantu was expected to leave here for Los Angeles today for a visit with his family. Later he will go to Mexico City to confer with President de la Huerta and is expected to assume a colonelcy in the federal army.
